Brasted's - in the beginning

*J*ohn Brasted (or JB as he was generally known) founded Brasted's in 1984.

Brasted's was a 22 cover restaurant, positioned in the very centre of Norwich. Renowned for its high quality food and service, it fast became one of Norwich's leading restaurants earning 3 AA rosettes. Brasted's enviable reputation soon created a demand for high quality outside catering and since the late eighties have been providing event excellence across England.

In 1999, with the lease expired, JB and Nick Mills (Managing Director) created Brasted's Barns in Framingham Pigot. Originally devoted to weddings, conferences and parties, Brasted's offered a high quality venue for that special occasion.

In 2004 Brasted's restaurant opened and in 2005, executive chef Chris Busby (Buzz) won EDP Norfolk chef of the year and Brasted's won Norfolk restaurant of the year. 2006 and 2012 saw Brasted's win this highly auspicious award again.

In September 2009 Brasted's Lodge was created, beautiful guest accommodation comprising of six individually designed en suite bedrooms.
